MANUSCRIPT EVALUATION

If the idea of extensive edits feels overwhelming or cost-prohibitive, a manuscript evaluation might be your perfect ally.

KEY FEATURES & BENEFITS

- Make Your Manuscript Publication-Worthy: If your goal is to make your manuscript marketable and publication-ready but you're constrained by time or budget, a manuscript assessment is an efficient solution. It provides a professional review without the extensive process of full developmental editing.
- Target Audience Alignment: A manuscript evaluation measures how well your manuscript resonates with its target audience and genre norms. This means valuable insights into how your story fits within the landscape of similar books. By evaluating how well your manuscript gears towards its target audience, the assessment ensures that your story will captivate and maintain reader interest. This is key to not only attract readers but also to keep them engaged.
- Brief, Actionable Advice: There will be no lengthy reports to bog you down. Instead, you'll receive concise, actionable advice that can guide your revisions and self-edits effectively. Typically, this takes the form of a short report, just a few pages long, but packed with invaluable insights. A manuscript assessment offers excellent value for money. You get expert guidance to improve your manuscript without stretching your budgets for time or cost too thin.
- Quick Turnaround: The process is significantly quicker due to its focused nature. This lets you gain critical feedback without the wait.
- Improve Self-Editing Skills: One of the understated benefits of a manuscript evaluation is that it empowers you to become a better self-editor. The concise advice you receive helps you understand what works and what doesn't, giving you tools to refine your craft.
- Alternate Service Tiers:
 - First 3 Chapters ($75)
 - Partial Evaluation: $250 (up to 40k words)
